Tar Captain John Bunker, the keeper of the City Prison, informs us that his hotel is pretty well crowded at present; indeed, too much so for comfort. When will we have a Work-house built? That's the question.

Mayor Complaint was yesterday made to Mayor Bishop against a drayman, who resides back of Ludlow, Kentucky, charging him with selling milk in this city, taken from diseased cows. As the matter will be thoroughly investigated we withhold further comment.

There will be a meeting of the lotowners of the Baptist portion of the Catharinestreet Burying Ground, at the office of 'Squire Marchant, on Second-street, at three o'clock this afternoon. The object of this meeting is to devise means to prevent an alleged imposition upon the part of the Trustees having the grounds in charge.

Mrs. Pross and her boarders were on trial in the Police Court, yesterday, upon a charge of malicious destruction of property, in tarring the residence of Dr. J. L. Vattier. There being no evidence against the boarders, solle was entered, and they were discharged. Mrs. Pross was held in bail for further examination to-day.

Charles Walter plead guilty in the Police Court, yesterday, to stealing a bolt of broadcloth from a dry goods store on Pearlstreet, and was sentenced to make regtoration in double the amount of the property stolen, and to be confined in the dungern of the County Jail for the term of twer ty days, to be fed on bread and water.

Richard Connelly, an elderly gentleman, who resides on Columbia-street, in the vicinity of Gas-alley, was before Judge Lowe yesterday, charged with Incest. His alleged victim is his step-daughter, an interesting girl, about thirteen years of age. It is the opinion of Dr. Cary, after a thorough examination, that there is probable grounds for the of $1,000 bail, for examination next Thursday. recovery.

A FRW PACTS ABOUT BERRISS .- Mr. John H. Gerard read before the Hortfcultural Bociety, on Saturday, a statistical paper concerning strawberries and raspberries, in which it was stated that, during the season of 1859, there were sold in the Cincinnati market raspberries and strawberries, grown in the southern precinct of Anderson Township, alone, 10,113 bushels, of which 2,128 bushels were strawberries. These, at $3 40 per bushel, smount to $34,384 20. Mr. G. says: Deduct $1 per bushel for picking, marketing and selling, and it will leave a balance of $24,271 20. Now add the amount sent from Kentucky, Indians, &c., including blackber-ries, and it will be a safe estimate to say that double the amount raised in the southern precinct of Anderson is sold in markets of this city. Amount sold from southern precinet of Anderson, 10,113 bushels; amount from Indiana, Kentucky, &c., 20,226 bushels; amount of all kinds of berries sold in mar-ket, &c., and brought to this market, 30,339 bushels, which, at $3 40 per bushel, will amount to $106,786. Mr. Sanford remarked that he did not wish this paper to be understood as embracing the extent of the berry cultivation in this vicinity certainly not in Kentucky—that during the strawberry season on the Lexington Railroad in Kentucky he observed the train stopping very often to take on strawberries, and learned from the conductor that there were then on board for Cincinnati 1,000 bushels, and that every train at that time was bringing down nearly the same quantity. He had no doubt that Kentucky alone contributed over 20,000 bushels, and that his former estimate would fall short of the real quantity brought from Kentucky.

Mr. Joseph H. Horner, of Campbell County, Ky., remarked that Campbell County alone sent eight thousand bushels.

SHAMEFUL .- A woman named Mary Lynch was some time since sent to the City Prison for getting drunk-a habit to which she has for some time been adicted. Mary is the mother of two interesting little girls, aged respectively nine and eleven years, and during her confinement placed them in the care of a temperance tour through the Eastern States, Mrs. John son, the keeper of a low doggery-a resort for vagrants-on Sycamore-street, between Third and Fourth-streets. Yesterday Mrs. Johnson was forcibly ejected from the premises, when she went away, leaving the little children upon the sidewalk, to the mercy of the passers-by. Information was immediately left with Lieutenant Small, who had them removed to the Hammond street Stationhouse, where it was discovered that they were both suffering with the scarlet fever. They were removed from thence to the Commercial Hospital, where they will be properly provided for. This is certainly one of the most outrageous and cruel acts we have ever heard of.

> Timothy Brandin brought suit before 'Squire Peter Bell, yesterday, against Police Officers John Schlosser, Conrad Zimmerman and Samuel Laforce, of the Twelfth Ward, charging them with assault and battery. Laforce was discharged, and Schlosser and Zimmerman held to answer at the Court of Common Pleas, in bonds of $300 each. The alleged assault occurred on the day these officers were on a spree, for which spree Mayor Bishop suspended them, temporarily, some few days since.

> We learn that it is the intention of the colored people in Cincinnati, to arrange for a meeting in this city on the 7th of September, at which Charles H. Langston, Mr. Bushnell, and others, of Lorain County, are to be speakers, to take into consideration the recent penal enactions in Arkansas and Louisiana, against the presence of free people of color in those States. The exclusion takes effect in Louisians on September 1, and in Arkansas next Purchasers are taught the method of running them, by competent hands, without extra charge. Samples of their work furnished at any time.

STUDENTS OF OLD WOODWARD .- A preliminary meeting of these active and spirited young men his called for Thursday evening, at the School Board Office, Mechanics' Institute Building. Arrangements are to be made for the approaching Anniversary; also, for the proposed Monument to WILLIAM WOODWARD, the founder of the Old High School and College. A call is made for a general attendance.

An invalid lady named Carrol wa brutally beaten by the inmates of Longworth' Building, on Sixth-street, near Culvert, yesterday. It appears that in consequence of her helpless condition, Mr. Longworth does not charge her rent. This fact being made known to other inmates, they entered her apartments and beat her most shamefully, while she was lying in bed, unable to protect herself.

Za Mrs. Mary Haustern, who resides on Front-street, near Elm, met with a severe accident last evening, during the storm. She was taking clothes from the line, in the yard of her residence, when one of the props fell, breaking her right arm, and otherwise bruising her body. She was, at a late hour last evening, suffering intensely.

We have received a communication signed "Twenty-four Boarders," complaining of a nuisance at the corner of Lawrence and Butler-streets. They inquire particularly for the police, and state that longer forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

COVINGTON NEWS.

FAIR OF THE NORTH KENTUCKY AGRICUL-TURAL SOCIETY.—On Tuesday next will commence the Fifth Annual Fair of the North Kentucky Agricul-tural Association, on their Fair Grounds, on the Covington and Lexington Turspike, near Florence, and continue five days. The chief rule of the Association is, that all entries must be made before ten o'clock on the morning of the exhibition, else they will be excluded. We are informed that ample ments have been made by the Directors for all competitors, and that the premiums offered are on a liberal scale-and hence the probability that there will be a magnificent display of the products of the soil, in all their great varieties. It is understood, also, that there will be something new on exhibition, in the way of some splendid Arabian Horses, which will be on the ground on the afternoon of the first day. The grand attraction of the whole affair, however, will be the equestrianism of the ladies, who will have a trial of skill on the last day of the exhibition, when it is expected that there will be quite an array of beauties. both from the cities of Corington and Cincinnati, to dispute the palm of excellence. We shall endeavor to be there to see.

LO ATION OF THE PRIVATE SEMINABLES .-The time for the opening of the Private Semiuaries of Covington, being near at hand, we feel called upon to give their various locations, for the accommodation of the g. neral reader, as well as for those who are desirous of furnishing pupils. The location of Mrs. Haines' Seminary is in College Buildings. in Eleventh-street, between Madison and Washing ton. It is a beautiful spot for the purpose designed one for which nature has done much, and yet there is an opening for art to accomplish more-which w hope to see done at no distant day. Miss Haines will reopen her school on she first Monday in September, under the most flattering auspices. Mrs. Phelps will open her new school at the same time in Greenup Hall, in Greenup-street, between Third and Fourth. Professor S. Maud has located his new school, for boys and girls, on Fourth-street, between South and Greenup, in the building recently occupied by Win. Gedge, and formerly owned by him. He will open on the first Monday in September.

OMNIBUS AGENT ROBBED .- The boardinghouse of Mrs. Hays, located on Sixth-street, botwood Scott and Greenup, was entered on Saturday last by some bold thief, and a man by the name of David Adams robbed of a small sum of money. The rascal climbed upon a shed, which gained him an entrance through a window into the room where Adams lodged. There were four men sleeping in the same room at the time, neither of whom were awakened by the noise. The money taken was about twelve dollars, the proceeds of a frip Mr. Adams had made but a few hours before, on the cars, as agent of the omnibus line.

THAT ABDUCTION CASE .- As we at the time chronicled the fact of the abduction of the little girl from the Madison House, a few days ago, by Mrs Brant, and whose return we have noticed, it is but right that we showed justice to Mrs. Brant. At the time she was here she borrowed five dollars of the Rev. Mr. Hiner, which was then thought to be "a sell," but that gentleman received a letter from her on Friday or Saturday last, inclosing the amount. In the letter she persists in saying that the was per suaded to take the girl and adopt her-but of that no more, as it is only a matter of veracity between two

NEWPORT NEWS.

CAUSE AND EFFECTS .- On Friday evening last a couple of young men of our city entered a confectionery on the corn r of Believue and Isabellastreets, and made themselves rather too free with the proprietor's goods. Andrews, was arrested, but the other escaped, Andrews was yesterday tried before Mayor Hawkins, and fined $30 and costs, in default of which he was Vox Poruli .-- A communication has been received by us, from a citizen of our town, bearing upon the jail now used in our city; also setting forth the modus operandi of getting a new one; and how to make it a paying institution. Just as soon as Council determines upon building a new jail, and "Yox Populi" will shorten his article, it being ontirely too lengthy in its present form for our paper, we will give it a place in our columns. The manuscript can be obtained at our counting-room, open application, if desired.

FLAG PRESENTATION .- The Turner Society of our city was yesterday presented with a beautiful silk flag by the ladies. The flag is a very handsome one, being made of the best silk that could be obtained. The presentation took place at the Turners' Hall, and passed off pleasantly. A large number of Cincinnati Turners were in attendance.

BALL To-Night .- The young men of Newport give a party to-night at Odd Fellows' Hall. The managers will exert themselves to please those in attendance, in a style herotofore unsurpassed. Menter's Band has been secured, and the lovers of the dance may feel assured that it will be a REcurneus affair.

COLUMBUS NEWS.

Columnus, Aug. 22, 1859. THE ADULTERY CASE. The adultery case against Joseph R. Hunter, which was dismissed before 'Squire Heyl, on Friday last, on account of a deficiency in the affidavit, was again set for trial before Esquire Miller this morning. The warrant was issued, and Hunter turned up missing. It is the intention of Lorash to push the case through, should he beable to find the party interested.

Bound Over .- S. B. Hannum, Esq., was, on Saturday, bound over by 'Squire Heyl, in the sum of $50, for his appearance at the Probate Court, to answer a charge of assault and battery, on the person of E. Mettles. Mettles was previously bound over for a similar charge on the person of S. B. Hannam. We think, from present appearances, they will have to wait some time for water. ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE .- Mrs. Wilson, a fortune-teller, attempted to commit suicide, yesterday, by jumping into the river. She was pulled out and taken to the lock-up, where she remained until this afternoon, when she was taken to the County In-
